School Oath

Today I have an obligation.

No longer will I be silent if you need help.

Silence is participation.

I refuse to participate in the problem.

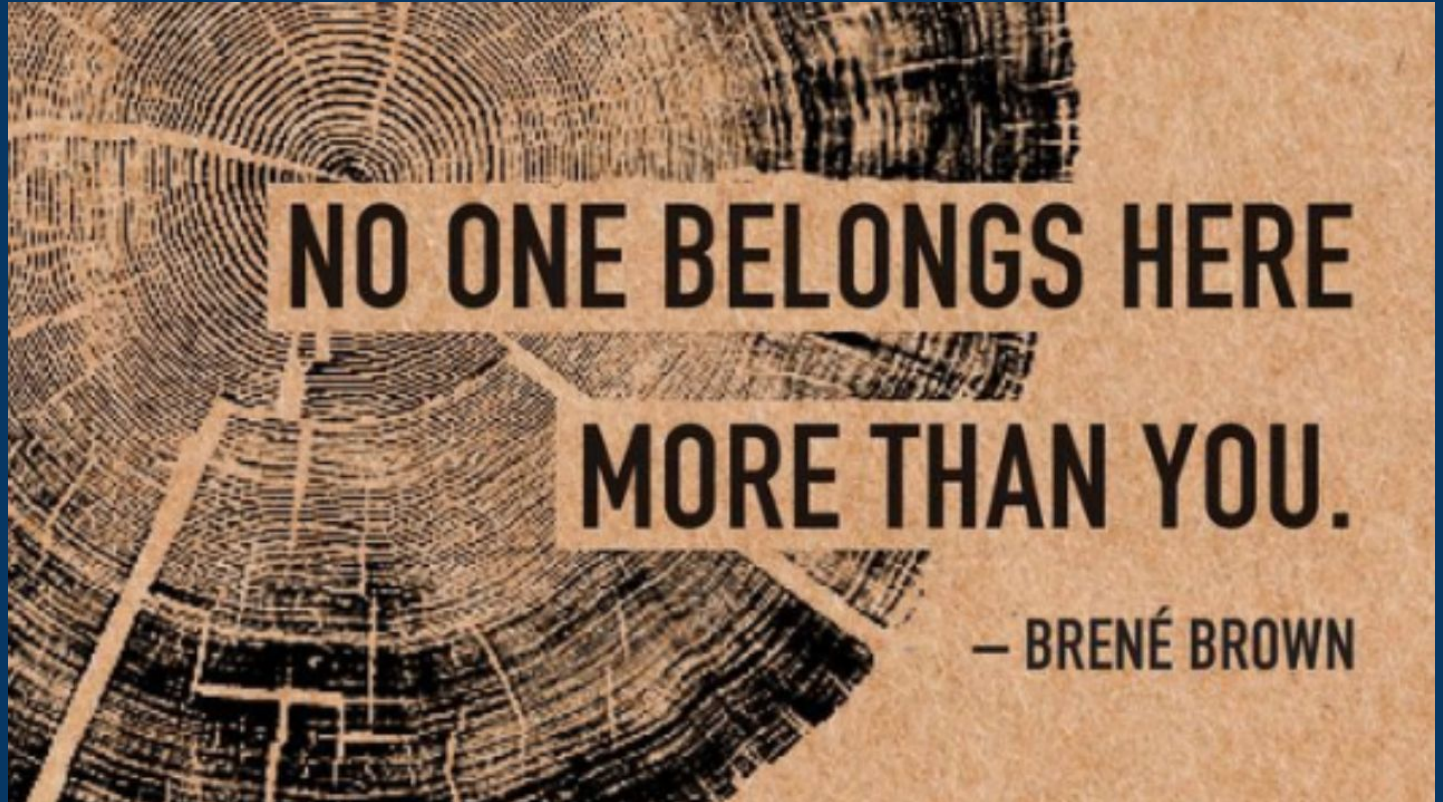

We are all different, but we all deserve respect.

If you need help, come to me.

If I think you need help, I'm getting involved.

I've got your back.

Quote of the day...

CELEBRATING

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

FEBRUARY

“For me, education means to inspire people to live more abundantly, to learn to begin with life as they find it
and make it better.”

Carter G. Woodson
Father of Black History Month

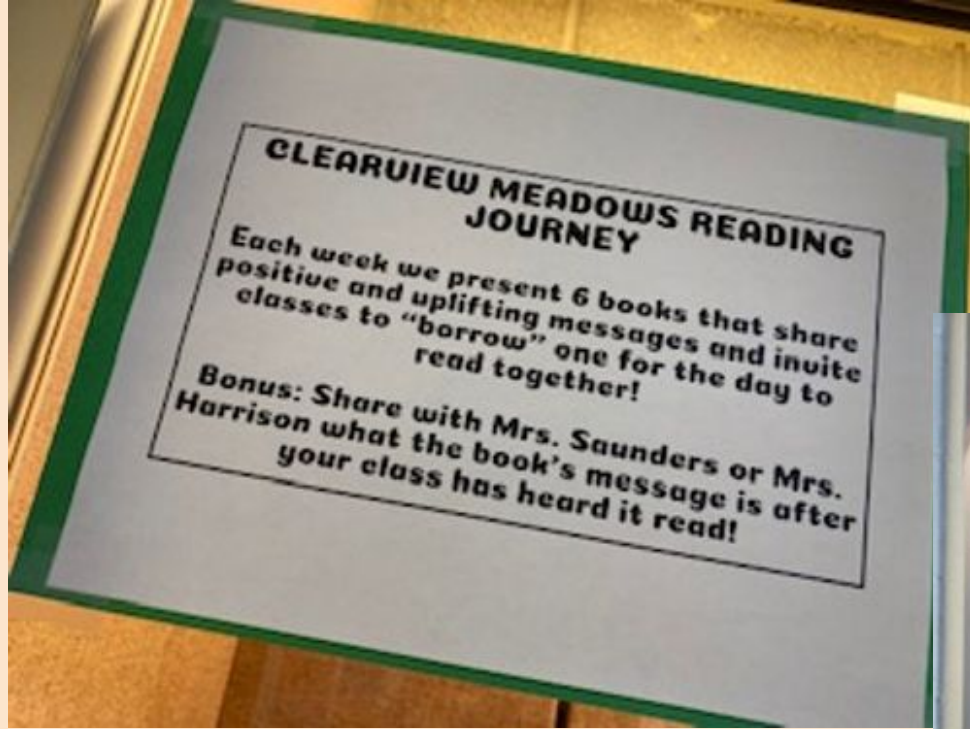

As we look towards our final days for Black History Month, we turn the focus from the history and stories and people shared and learned about in your classrooms to the newer voices that are emerging that are looking for change as they know the past and shape the future..

We begin this week's focus by sharing the Historically Black Anthem and showcase some of the work that classes are doing...

Don't forget Wolfpack to take a look as we present our Reading Journey activity for the month of February!!!

Sharing new books every Wednesday, we invite you to borrow a book and share an inspiring story of learning and voice.

RECESS REMINDERS FROM THE OFFICE...

Some important recess reminders for our Wolfpack...

You can play with friends in ways that are safe and fun. That means you can keep your hands and feet to yourself.

You can be creative with games you play and remember to keep them fair and inclusive.

You can play in the snow and have fun building, rolling and running while keeping snow on the ground.

When we do this we can all have a fun recess where everyone feels safe and respected.

Work together because #We'veGotYourBack

To all our Wolfpack for returning after a wonderful weekend to learn with us again!

Mystery Reader (Repeat from last week)

This week the book has been chosen for you because it is very special to this Mystery Reader. Read the clues and see if you can guess who the Mystery Reader is. (No form this week but see if you can guess who it is).

Clue 1: I am an actress and author.

Clue 2: I wrote the book based on my own life experience.
