

Wednesday, June 14
Day 1

The Simcoe County District School Board acknowledges that we are situated on the traditional land of the Anishnaabeg people. We acknowledge the enduring presence of First Nations, Metis and Inuit people on this land and are committed to moving forward in the spirit of reconciliation and respect. Stayner is part of Treaty 18. Nottawasaga Purchase, signed on October 17, 1818.

Please stand for the singing of O Canada

School Oath

Today I have an obligation.

No longer will I be silent if you need help.

Silence is participation.

I refuse to participate in the problem.

We are all different, but we all deserve respect.

If you need help, come to me.

If I think you need help, I'm getting involved.

I've got your back.

This choice board will provide a variety of options for learning.

Not Quite Narwhal K-3 Choice Board

First, click on the link to the left to watch a read-aloud of Not Quite Narwhal by author Jessie Sima.

Next, choose at least one learning prompt from the grid below.

Then, share your learning.

A discussion prompt for families and children to explore and learn together:

We are sharing this choice board in recognition of Pride Month, a month where we celebrate the diversity of human relationships and families, recognize the history of LGBTQ+ changemakers and their allies, and work together to create more inclusive spaces for everyone. Discussions with your children about standing up for what is fair, interrupting exclusion and bullying, and being open to the diversity of all individuals and families, can make a positive impact on our school and community.

Kelp goes on a big journey in this book. Can you make a timeline of the story that shows Kelp's journey?

Kelp was fearful that his narwhal friends wouldn't accept Kelp once they found out that Kelp was a unicorn. How did they show that they did accept Kelp? How do you include others? Write or draw your response.

On the last page of the book, we see how the unicorns and narwhals come together. This shows unity. Draw a picture that shows what unity means to you.

Watch this read-aloud of Big Bob, Little Bob and learn about "boy toys" and "girl toys"?

What do you like in this book?

Think about what is special about your family.

RECYCLING WEDNESDAY!

Bring your buckets down after 2nd break

A reminder that when you arrive on the school yard in the morning, cell phones are to be put away in your bags.

Cell phones may only be used for academic tasks with staff permission.

Calls/texts to home must come from the office.

LUNCH REMINDERS...

*You are to be sitting down at your desk eating your lunch.

*There is NO SHARING OF FOOD. We have many students that have allergies and we can only eat what our families pack us to eat.

*If you are needing a snack, please take one item from your class snack bucket. If your bucket is empty, get teacher permission to come visit the office!

A graphic consisting of two overlapping speech bubbles. The top bubble is yellow and contains the word 'SHOUT' in bold, dark blue capital letters. The bottom bubble is light blue and contains the word 'OUTS' in bold, dark blue capital letters. Surrounding the bubbles are several small stars in yellow and light blue.
